

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

29 June 1982

STAT

Dear Jim,

Thanks for your note of 24 June, and thanks for letting me keep the three-page synopsis on the British SIS.

I think you may have sent me a copy of your dissertation bibliography but I cannot find it in my files. If you can spare a copy I would be glad to have it. I am still doing some work on inter-war British policy in my spare time -- although spare time has been a scarce commodity since I arrived here.

Let me know when you find your way to Washington.

Sincerely,

J. Kenneth McDonald
Chief Historian

STAT

cc: Chrono

JKMcD